Plant Care Tips Told Fuchsia Club

Care and raising of fuchsias and begonias thru a talk given to members of the North Torrance Branch of the California Fuchsia Society last Tuesday night when they met at Mc-Master Hall.

Speaker of the evening, Dexter Draper of the California Spray and Chemical Co., illustrated his lecture with a film.

Following the business session, Mrs. Clarence DeCamp conducted a plant sale, and members swapped plants at an exchange table supervised by Mrs. Basil Ball, state convention delegate.

are Mesdames Eugene Trotter, 2203 Maricopa St.; Charles Bales, 2469 Torrance Blvd.; Charles Cormack, 802 Crenshaw Blvd.; and Samuel Nuckolls, 1415 Greenwood Ave. Not pictured are Mesdames John Vieler and John Rickabaugh, who also received certificates at the conclusion of the course.

Professional Women Vote Scholarship for THS Gal; Name Committee Monday

Senior high school girls who aspire to a career in business may get a financial push in that direction as a result of action taken at last week's Monday meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Members voted to establish a scholarship for a Torrance High School senior girl who is a member of the junior BPW Club so that she may continue her education at a business school of her choice. It is expected that the jun-

SIX MOMS-TO-BE FINISH MOTHERHOOD SCHOOL

Six Torrance moms-to-be wound up 11 weeks of lessons preparing them for motherhood last week, receiving certificates from the hands of Dr. Gerald Heidebreder at "graduation" ceremonies in the Torrance Health Center.

Sponsored by the Center, the course was conducted by Mrs. Leona Rowe. Participants heard lectures on the growth and development of the child during pregnancy, the hygiene of pregnancy, nutrition for the pregnant woman and everyone in the family, and the safe way to make a baby's formula.

Demonstration classes included the proper way to bathe a baby and the necessary items for the layette. Students also viewed films on labor and childbirth.

Another class for expectant moms will be given this fall, Mrs. Rowe said. Courses will begin in late September or early October, she revealed.

Walteria PTA Honors Past Principal, Greets Successor

In appreciation for his services as school principal during the past six years, Walteria PTA board members presented D. Boone Kirks with a portfolio following last Thursday's meeting at the 3924 Newton St. home of Mrs. Henry Fink.

Kirks, who will serve as principal of Torrance Elementary School next fall, is being succeeded at the Walteria School by Dr. Vernon Sheblak, the new administrator, who previously has served as head of the local adult education department, was greeted by the PTA executives at the Thursday session.

The group will start the September ball of social activities rolling during the first week of school with a luncheon for the teachers. Committee members chosen to plan the affair were Mesdames Wesley Crochran, William Allen, C. W. Johnson, Joseph Pene, E. B. Prau, and Bruce Howie.

Also slated for September are a series of lectures on parent education, to be presented by Mrs. Dorothy Law at Seaside School, Mrs. Carl Cramer, president, announced.

A progress report on the construction of booths for the Halldale Carnival was given by E. F. Schenover.

Ratification of Mrs. Frank Trantham as assistant welfare chairman, also highlighted the session.

Moms Slate Thursday Supper to Aid Scouts

With the idea of raising funds for Boy Scout activities during the coming year, the Mothers Club of Troop 219 will sponsor a supper at the Sav-Mart, 23401 Western Ave., next Thursday evening, Aug. 20.

Serving of the mouth-watering meal will begin at 4 o'clock and continue until 7:30. Mrs. Leo Robertson, chairman, revealed. Chili beans, corn, all kinds of sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and juices will be menu features.

Assisting Mrs. Robertson with arrangements for the event are Mesdames Ernie Swift and Dorothy Buckalew. Tickets, which went on sale last Saturday, may be obtained from any of the Scouts, the mothers, or at the door the night of the affair for 25 cents.

for club will be organized this fall and that the scholarship will be given for the first time next June, Mrs. Virginia Beck, president, revealed. Organizational plans begun late this spring were postponed until school reopens in September because of the imminence of graduation.

A committee composed of Harriett Covington, finance chairman; Herma Tillim, junior club chairman; Mrs. Beck, and one other member who will be appointed by the president at next Monday night's meeting will set up scholarship requirements.

The committee, together with a representative from the school faculty, also will choose the winner of the award each year. Monday's meeting will follow at 7:30 p.m. dinner at Melton's By the Sea in Manhattan Beach.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Robert I. Plomert, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

$600,000 Torrance Unified School District Los Angeles County, California 3 1/2% Bonds, Election 1952, Series B

Dated Sept. 1, 1953 Due Sept. 1, 1954-77, Incl.

Principal and semi-annual interest (March 1 and September 1) payable at the office of the Treasurer of Los Angeles County in Los Angeles, California, or at any of the fiscal agencies of Los Angeles County in New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Illinois, at the option of the holder. First coupon (annual) payable September 1, 1954. Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 registrable only as to both principal and interest.

In the opinion of counsel, interest payable by the District upon its bonds is exempt from all present Federal and State of California personal income taxes under existing statutes, regulations and court decisions.

We believe that these bonds are legal investments in California for savings banks, subject to the legal limitations upon the amount of a bank's investment, and are likewise legal investments in California for trust funds and for other funds which may be invested in bonds which are legal investments for savings banks, and are eligible as security for deposits of public moneys in California.

These bonds, to be issued for various school purposes, in the opinion of counsel will constitute the legal and binding obligations of the Torrance Unified School District and will be payable, both principal and interest, from ad valorem taxes which, under the laws now in force, may be levied without limitation as to rate or amount upon all of the taxable property, except certain personal property, in said District.

The above bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of legality by Messrs. O'Melveny & Myers, Attorneys, Los Angeles, California.

McVEYS BACK FROM SAN FRANCISCO

At home again, 920 Kornblum Ave., after two weeks in San Francisco, are Mr. and Mrs. John McVey and children Patricia, Karen, and John.

Mom and the small fry enjoyed seeing the sights of the Golden Gate city while dad completed his reserve army training at Fort Scott. Hosts to the Torrance family were Stanford University and Mills College classmates of Mrs. McVey.

Before the journey home, the McVeys enjoyed a week-end stay with her brother, William Irvine and his family at Sacramento.
